Hi Jeff,

I still haven't been able to locate this package. Is there some more information you can give me? Even the product name would be helpful.

As you can imagine, there is already a lot of interest in this and I'm getting pressed to produce documents that haven't made their way through our system. If you could provide courtesy copies as soon as possible, that would be very helpful.

Thank you,
Emily

Emily,

I will be sure to pass them along when I have them.

Also thank you for the Engenia PRO withdrawal confirmation from earlier today.

Jeff

Hi Jeff,

Could you give me the file symbol or submission number so I can watch for it? Things have been taking a long time to get through our front end screening because of everyone working remotely.

Thanks,
Emily
